C603 China recently announced it would retaliate against the first set of U.S. tariffs on $50bn of Chinese goods with equal tariffs of its own. Should the United States continue to push for Chinese trade concessions and risk a trade war, or should it take the $70bn worth of concessions it has negotiated and move on to other issues?

The report found that the big decisions in the Clinton case were not motivated by political bias. Of the decision not to charge Clinton, the inspector general "found no evidence that the conclusions by the prosecutors were affected by bias or other improper considerations; rather, we determined that they were based on the prosecutors' assessment of the facts, the law and past department practice."

IG601_5 As you may know, the Justice Department Inspector General released a report on the conduct of the FBI on the Clinton email probe? Please indicate whether you have heard or not heard of each of the following findings from the report.

The report surfaces politically biased text messages by a handful of FBI employees, including counterintelligence agent Peter Strock, who was responsible for leading the Clinton email probe and opening the Trump-Russia investigation. The report found that the communications, many derogatory of Trump, were "deeply troubling" and "cast a cloud" over the handling of the Clinton email investigation.

The inspector general singles out an August 2016 text exchange in which Strzok tells Lisa Page, an advisor to deputy-FBI Director Andrew McCabe, "we'll stop" then-candidate Trump from being elected. The report says the text is "not only indicative of a biased state of mind but, even more seriously, implies a willingness to take official action to impact the presidential candidate's electoral prospects."

Some of the same agents in the Clinton investigation were also involved in the early months of the FBI's investigation into Russian election interference. Investigators were particularly skeptical of Strzok, saying they couldn't be confident his personal decision to prioritize the Russia investigation over the Clinton probe "was free from bias" because of the nature of his text messages.

The report finds that former FBI director James Comey departed from policy and practice by making a public announcement revealing that Clinton would not be charged in the case. It calls Comey "insubordinate" and says the announcement violated protocol and "usurped" the authority of the Attorney General in making it, who should have made the decision on the announcement.	304 21%	160 23%	144 19%	106 28%	67 20%	85 20%	46 15%	220 22%	39 20%	34 19%	4 21%	119 26%	112 21%	68 16%	80 21%	125 20%	100 22%	110 21%	127 23%	22 20%	106 21%	198 21%	111 25%	132 19%	60 21%	119 20%	164 21%

The inspector general singles out an August 2016 text exchange in which Strzok tells Lisa Page, an advisor to deputy-FBI Director Andrew McCabe, "we'll stop" then-candidate Trump from being elected. The report says the text is "not only indicative of a biased state of mind but, even more seriously, implies a willingness to take official action to impact the presidential candidate's electoral prospects."	238 16%	116 16%	121 16%	39 10%	48 14%	97 23%	54 18%	176 18%	27 14%	24 13%	1 6%	94 20%	62 11%	80 19%	37 10%	84 14%	117 26%	54 10%	119 22%	26 23%	95 19%	143 15%	56 13%	126 18%	55 19%	111 18%	111 15%
Some of the same agents in the Clinton investigation were also involved in the early months of the FBI's investigation into Russian election interference. Investigators were particularly skeptical of Strzok, saying they couldn't be confident his personal decision to prioritize the Russia investigation over the Clinton probe "was free from bias" because of the nature of his text messages.	198 14%	74 11%	124 17%	57 15%	42 12%	56 13%	43 15%	123 12%	32 17%	20 11%	5 31%	77 17%	57 11%	54 13%	55 14%	73 12%	71 16%	53 10%	76 14%	16 14%	66 13%	132 14%	58 13%	91 13%	49 17%	71 12%	105 14%

The report surfaces politically biased text messages by a handful of FBI employees, including counterintelligence agent Peter Strock, who was responsible for leading the Clinton email probe and opening the Trump-Russia investigation. The report found that the communications, many derogatory of Trump, were "deeply troubling" and "cast a cloud" over the handling of the Clinton email investigation.	194 13%	93 13%	100 14%	39 10%	52 15%	56 13%	47 16%	119 12%	33 18%	30 17%	3 20%	63 14%	76 14%	49 12%	36 9%	94 15%	64 14%	66 12%	85 16%	15 13%	51 10%	143 15%	65 15%	92 13%	37 12%	83 14%	103 13%
The report found that the big decisions in the Clinton case were not motivated by political bias. Of the decision not to charge Clinton, the inspector general "found no evidence that the conclusions by the prosecutors were affected by bias or other improper considerations; rather, we determined that they were based on the prosecutors' assessment of the facts, the law and past department practice."	149 10%	82 12%	66 9%	52 14%	43 13%	31 7%	22 7%	95 10%	19 10%	27 15%	1 4%	34 7%	56 11%	55 13%	31 8%	67 11%	51 11%	55 10%	50 9%	9 8%	43 9%	106 11%	48 11%	69 10%	32 11%	65 11%	78 10%

The report finds that former FBI director James Comey departed from policy and practice by making a public announcement revealing that Clinton would not be charged in the case. It calls Comey "insubordinate" and says the announcement violated protocol and "usurped" the authority of the Attorney General in making it, who should have made the decision on the announcement.	222 15%	99 14%	123 17%	64 17%	47 14%	66 15%	46 16%	145 15%	39 20%	23 13%	3 16%	55 12%	99 18%	62 15%	85 22%	83 14%	54 12%	110 21%	62 11%	16 15%	74 15%	148 16%	69 16%	104 15%	49 17%	100 17%	107 14%
Some of the same agents in the Clinton investigation were also involved in the early months of the FBI's investigation into Russian election interference. Investigators were particularly skeptical of Strzok, saying they couldn't be confident his personal decision to prioritize the Russia investigation over the Clinton probe "was free from bias" because of the nature of his text messages.	211 15%	105 15%	106 14%	31 8%	50 15%	81 19%	50 17%	151 15%	27 14%	21 11%	3 16%	76 16%	72 13%	58 14%	39 10%	80 13%	93 20%	71 13%	95 18%	19 17%	80 16%	131 14%	57 13%	106 15%	48 16%	83 14%	118 15%

The inspector general singles out an August 2016 text exchange in which Strzok tells Lisa Page, an advisor to deputy-FBI Director Andrew McCabe, "we'll stop" then-candidate Trump from being elected. The report says the text is "not only indicative of a biased state of mind but, even more seriously, implies a willingness to take official action to impact the presidential candidate's electoral prospects.".	202 14%	98 14%	104 14%	51 13%	55 16%	51 12%	45 15%	135 14%	30 16%	19 10%	2 10%	75 16%	60 11%	59 14%	39 10%	89 15%	74 16%	48 9%	82 15%	17 15%	70 14%	132 14%	56 13%	101 14%	45 15%	74 12%	111 14%
The report finds that Comey "made a serious error in judgment" by publicly notifying Congress, just days before Election Day, that the FBI had discovered additional Clinton emails and would reopen the investigation.	188 13%	96 14%	92 12%	60 16%	39 11%	51 12%	38 13%	138 14%	16 9%	24 13%	4 24%	48 10%	80 15%	56 13%	59 16%	87 14%	41 9%	92 17%	55 10%	12 11%	67 13%	121 13%	71 16%	81 11%	35 12%	80 13%	92 12%
