Monthly Harvard-Harris Poll: June 2018

This survey was conducted online within the United States from July 24-25, 2018 among 1,323 registered voters by The Harris Poll.

The results reflect a nationally representative sample. Results were weighted for age within gender, region, race/ethnicity, marital status, household size, income, employment, political party, political ideology, and education where necessary to align them with their actual proportions in the population. Propensity score weighting was also used to adjust for respondents' propensity to be online.

CASE1 In its 2017-2018 term, the Supreme Court heard a series of important cases. Below, are going to ask you about a few of these cases. In Trump v. Hawaii, the Court considered whether President Trump's September 2017 executive action limiting travel to the United States by citizens of eight countries was permissible. Do you happen to know how the Court ruled in this case?

CASE4 The Court overturned the Colorado Civil Rights Commission's ruling against the bakery because the Court found that members of the Commission had shown hostility to the baker's religion. The Court did not conclusively decide whether a state could require that bakers design cakes for same-sex weddings. Do you support or oppose the Court's decision in this case?

CASE6 The Court ruled that it does not violate federal law for a state to remove voters from its voter roll who fail to vote as long as the voters failed to respond to a notice sent to them by the state to confirm their residency. The ruling means that Ohio's law will remain in effect. Do you support or oppose the Court's decision in this case?

CASE10 The Court said that the people bringing the suit had not shown that they had enough of a personal stake in the case to be able to bring their claims in court. The Court did not rule on the general issue of whether a state legislature drawing district boundaries to benefit a political party violates the Constitution. Do you support or oppose the Court's decision in this case?

CASE12 The Court ruled that all but one of the districts drawn by the Texas legislature did not violate the Constitution, rejecting that the maps were racially discriminatory. This means that the districts drawn by the Texas legislature will remain in place for the 2018 elections. Do you support or oppose the Court's decision in this case?
