Monthly Harvard-Harris Poll: January 2018

This survey was conducted online within the United States between January 13-16, 2018 among 1,962 registered voters by The Harris Poll.

The results reflect a nationally representative sample. Results were weighted for age within gender, region, race/ethnicity, marital status, household size, income, employment, political party, political ideology, and education where necessary to align them with their actual proportions in the population. Propensity score weighting was also used to adjust for respondents' propensity to be online.

NETNEUTRALITY1 Do you think that internet providers should be able to charge companies for internet service by usage tiers, so that companies that need very high-speed delivery for services like online video pay more and companies that predominately send mail and text that can be delivered at slower speeds pay less, or should they not be allowed to charge companies in that way?

BP3 When we talk about the U.S. system of government, we hear a lot about checks and balances. Whether or not you approve of President Trump and his actions, do you believe that the current Congress has done too much or not enough to serve as a check and balance against President Trump, or has Congress been doing about the right amount?
